Upon the filing of the articles of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and the certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this Chapter, except as against the Community in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or for involuntary dissolution of the corporation.

Section 7. Organization Meeting of Directors. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held at the call of a majority of the directors named in the articles of incorporation, for the purpose of adopting bylaws not inconsistent with this Ordinance, electing officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The directors calling the meeting shall give at least three days’ notice thereof by mail to each director so named, which notice shall state the time and place of meeting. Any action permitted to be taken at the organization meeting of the directors may be taken without a meeting if each director signs an instrument which states the action so taken.

PART B: SHARES, SHAREHOLDERS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 1. Authorized Shares. Each corporation shall have power to create and issue the number of shares stated in its articles of incorporation. Such shares may be divided into one or more classes with such designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of or provide special voting rights for the shares of any class to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, such shares shall carry preemptive rights.

Without limiting the authority herein contained, a corporation, when so provided in its articles of incorporation, may issue shares of preferred or special classes:

- a. Subject to the right of the corporation to redeem any of such shares at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the redemption thereof.
- b. Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, non-cumulative or partially cumulative dividends.
- c. Having preference over any other class or classes of shares as to the payment of dividends.
- d. Having preference in the assets of the corporation over any other class or classes of shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the corporation.
- e. Convertible into shares of any other class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, except a class having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation.

Section 2. Certificates Representing Shares.

- a. Shares of a corporation may but need not be represented by certificates. Unless this Chapter or another statute expressly provides otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates.
- b. At a minimum each share certificate must state on its face:
 1. the name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the laws of the Community;
 2. the name of the person to whom issued; and
 3. the number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents.
- c. All restrictions on the transfer of shares must be summarized on the back or front of each certificate; provided, however, that the notice described in Part B, Section 12, of this Chapter may be used instead if authorized under the provisions of that Section.
- d. If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class and the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series (and the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series) must be summarized on the front or back of each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

- e. Each share certificate 1. must be signed (either manually or in facsimile) by two officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors and 2. may bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.
- f. If the person who signed (either manually or in facsimile) a share certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate is nevertheless valid.
- g. No certificate shall be issued for any share until the consideration established for its issuance shall have been received by the Corporation.
- h. Within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by this section.

Section 3. Subscription for Shares. A subscription for shares of a corporation to be organized shall be in writing and shall be irrevocable for a period of six months, unless otherwise provided by the terms of the subscription agreement or unless all of the subscribers' consent to the revocation of such subscription.

Section 4. Determination of Price – Payment for Shares.

- a. The powers granted in this section are subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation.
- b. Shares may be issued at price determined by the board of directors, or the board may set a minimum price or establish a formula or method by which the price may be determined.
- c. Consideration for shares may consist of cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be performed, or any other tangible or intangible property. If shares are issued for other than cash, the board of directors shall determine the value of the consideration.
- d. Shares issued when the corporation receives the consideration determined by the board are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.
- e. A good faith judgment of the board of directors as to the value of the consideration received for shares is conclusive.
- f. The corporation may place shares issued for a contract for future services or a promissory note in escrow, or make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares, and may credit distributions in respect of the shares against their purchase price, until the services are performed or the note is paid. If the services are not performed or the note is not paid, the shares escrowed or restricted and the distributions credited may be canceled in whole or in part.

Section 5. Expenses of Organization, Reorganization and Financing. The reasonable charges and expenses of organization or reorganization of a corporation, and the reasonable expenses of and compensation for the sale or underwriting of its shares, may be paid or allowed by such corporation out of the consideration received by it in payment for its shares without thereby rendering such shares assessable.

Section 6. Stockholder's Liability – Consideration for Shares. A holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation shall be under no obligation to the corporation or its creditors with respect to such shares other than the obligation to pay to the corporation the full consideration for which such shares were issued or were to be issued, except that he or she may become personally liable by reason of his or her own acts or conduct.

Section 7. Stated Capital; Determination of Amount.

- a. The consideration received by a corporation for its shares shall constitute stated capital. If the shares have been assigned a par value, the consideration received shall constitute stated capital to the extent of the par value of such shares, and the excess, if any, of such consideration shall constitute capital surplus.
- b. The stated capital of a corporation may be increased from time to time by resolution of the board of directors directing that all or part of the surplus of the corporation be transferred to stated capital. The board of directors may direct that the amount of the surplus so transferred shall be deemed to be stated capital in respect of any designated class of shares.
- c. Dividends shall not be paid out of stated capital.

Section 8. Payment of Deficits Out of Capital Surplus or Earned Surplus. A corporation may, by resolution of its board of directors, apply any part or all of its capital surplus to the reduction or elimination of any deficit arising from losses, however incurred, but only after first eliminating the earned surplus, if any, of the corporation by applying such losses against earned surplus and only to the extent that such losses exceed the earned surplus, if any. Each such application of capital surplus shall, to the extent thereof, effect a reduction of capital surplus.

Section 9. Insolvent Corporation Prohibited From Purchasing Own Shares. No purchase of or payment for its own shares shall be made by a corporation at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such purchase or payment would make it insolvent.

Section 10. Share Transfer Restrictions.

- a. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, no interest in shares of a corporation formed under this Chapter may be transferred, by operation of law or otherwise, whether voluntary or involuntary.
- b. Subsection a. above shall not apply to a transfer:
 1. To the corporation or to any other holder of the same class of shares;
 2. To members of the holder's immediate family, or to a trust, all of whose beneficiaries are members of the holder's immediate family. A holder's immediate family shall include only his spouse, parents, lineal descendants (including any adopted children and stepchildren) and spouse of any lineal descendants, and brothers and sisters;
 3. Which has been consented to in writing by all of the holders of the corporation's common shares having voting rights;

4. To an executor or administrator upon the death of a shareholder or to a trustee or receiver as the result of a bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution, or similar proceeding brought by or against a shareholder;
5. By merger, consolidation or a share exchange of existing shares for other shares of a different class or series in the corporation; or
6. By a pledge as collateral for a loan that does not grant the pledgee any voting rights possessed by the pledger.

Section 11. Offer to Sell Shares.

- a. Any person desiring to transfer shares in a transaction which is prohibited by Section 11.a, and is not exempt under Section 11.b. shall obtain a written offer from a third party who meets the requirements in paragraphs 1. and 2. of this subsection to purchase such shares for cash and shall deliver written notice of the third party offer to the corporation's registered office stating the number and kind of shares, the offering price, the other terms of the offer, and the name and address of the third party offeror. No transfer shall be made to a third party unless:
 1. the third party is eligible to become a qualified shareholder under the provisions of any federal, state or Tribal tax statute that the corporation has elected to be subject to and the third party shall agree in writing not to take any action to terminate the election without the approval of the remaining shareholders;
 2. the transfer to the third party will not result in the imposition of the personal holding company tax or any similar Tribal, state or federal penalty tax on the corporation.
- b. The notice specified in subsection a. shall constitute an offer to sell the shares to the corporation on the terms of the third party offer. Within 20 days after the corporation receives the notice, the corporation shall call a special meeting of shareholders, which shall be held not more than 40 days after the call, for the purpose of determining whether to purchase all (but not less than all) of the offered shares. Approval of action to purchase shall be by affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote excluding the offered shares. With the consent of all the shareholders entitled to vote for the approval, the corporation may allocate some or all of the shares to one or more shareholders or to other persons, but if the corporation has more than one class of shares, the remaining holders of the class of shares being offered for sale shall have a first option to purchase the shares that are not purchased by the corporation, in proportion to their shareholdings or in such proportion as shall be agreeable to those desiring to participate in the purchase.
- c. Written notice of the acceptance of the shareholder's offer shall be delivered or sent to the offering shareholder at the address specified in his notice to the corporation, or in the absence of any specification, at his last known address as reflected in the records of the corporation, within 75 days after receipt of the shareholder's offer. Notice sent by US mail shall be timely if it is deposited in the mail prior to midnight of the 75th day following the date the offer from the shareholder was received by the corporation. If the notice contains terms of purchase different from those contained in the shareholder's notice, the different terms shall be deemed a counter offer and unless the shareholder wishing to transfer his stock accepts in writing the counter offer, or the shareholder and the purchaser(s) otherwise resolve by written agreement the differences between the offer and counter offer within 15 days of receipt by the shareholder of the notice of acceptance, the notice containing the counter offer shall be ineffective as an acceptance.

- d. If a contract to sell is created under subsection c., the shareholder shall make delivery of all the certificates for the stock so sold, duly endorsed, within 20 days of receipt of the notice of acceptance, or in the case of uncertificated securities, shall within the 20 day period deliver to the corporation the required instruction requesting that the transfer be made. Breach of any of the terms of the contract shall entitle the non-breaching party to any remedy at law or equity allowed for breach of a contract, including, without limitation, specific performance.
- e. If the offer to sell is not accepted pursuant to subsections c. and d., the shareholder shall be entitled to transfer to the third-party offeror all (but not less than all) of the offered shares within 120 days after delivery of the shareholder's notice specified in subsection c. in accordance with the terms specified in the shareholder's notice.

Section 12. Notice of Transfer Restrictions on Issued Shares.

- a. If the summary of share transfer restrictions required by Part B, Section 2.c., of this Chapter to be printed on share certificates is too long to fit practicably on the certificates, the following notice may be used instead.

CAUTION: SHARES IN THIS CORPORATION CANNOT BE TRANSFERRED (BY SALE, GIFT OR OTHERWISE) EXCEPT AS ALLOWED BY THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, BYLAWS, AND SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENTS. COPIES OF DOCUMENTS WHICH DESCRIBE HOW SHARES CAN BE TRANSFERRED MAY BE OBTAINED BY A SHAREHOLDER ON WRITTEN REQUEST TO THE CORPORATION.

- b. All persons claiming an interest in shares of a statutory close corporation complying with the notice requirements of Part B, Section 2.c. or the notice requirement of subsection a. above shall be bound by the documents referred to in the notice. All persons claiming an interest in shares of a statutory close corporation not complying with the requirement of this section shall be bound by any documents of which they, or any person through whom they claim, have knowledge or notice.

Section 13. Transfer of Shares In Breach of Transfer Restrictions. Any attempted transfer of shares in a corporation formed under this Chapter in violation of any transfer restriction binding on the transferee shall be ineffective. Any attempted transfer of shares in a corporation formed under this Chapter in violation of any transfer restriction not binding on the transferee because the notice required by Part B, Sections 2 or 12, of this Chapter has not been given shall give the corporation the option, exercisable by notice and payment within 30 days after presentation of the shares for registration in the name of the transferee, to purchase the shares from the transferee for the same price and terms.

Section 14. Sale of Assets. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets, with or without the good will, of a corporation formed under this Chapter, if not made in the usual and regular course of its business, shall require the affirmative vote of all of the holders of outstanding shares of each class of shares of the corporation, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote thereon.

Section 15. Election Not to Have a Board of Directors.

- a. A corporation formed under this Chapter may operate without a board of directors if the articles of incorporation contain a statement to that effect. While this statement is effective:
 1. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under authority of and the business affairs of the corporation shall be managed under the direction of the shareholders of the corporation, and all powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the board of directors by this Chapter shall be exercised or performed by the shareholders.
 2. No liability that would otherwise be imposed on the directors shall be imposed on a shareholder by virtue of any act or failure to act unless the shareholder was entitled to vote on the action.
 3. Any requirement that an instrument filed with any governmental agency contain a statement that a specified action has been taken by the board of directors shall be satisfied by a statement that the corporation is formed under this Chapter having no board of directors and that the action was duly approved by the shareholders.
 4. The shareholders by resolution may appoint one or more shareholders to sign any documents as “Designated Directors.”
 5. Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, any action requiring director approval or both director and shareholder approval shall be sufficiently authorized by shareholder approval and any action otherwise requiring a vote of a majority or greater percentage of the board of directors shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority, or such greater percentage, of the shares entitled to vote thereon.
- b. Any amendment to the articles of incorporation to include the provisions authorized by subsection a. must be approved by the holders of all the shares of the corporation whether or not they are otherwise entitled to vote thereon, or all the subscribers to such shares, or the incorporators, as the case may be. Any amendment to the articles of incorporation to delete the election must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of all of the shares of the corporation whether or not they are otherwise entitled to vote thereon.

Section 16. Agreements Among Shareholders.

- a. The shareholders of a corporation formed under this Chapter may by unanimous action enter into one or more written agreements to regulate the exercise of the corporate powers and the management of the business and affairs of the corporation or the relations among the shareholders of the corporation.
- b. Any agreement authorized by this section shall be valid and enforceable according to its terms notwithstanding the elimination of a board of directors, any restriction on the discretion or powers of the board of directors, or any proxy or weighted voting rights given to directors and notwithstanding that the effect of the agreement is to treat the corporation as if it were a partnership or that the arrangement of the relations among the shareholders or between the shareholders and the corporation would otherwise be appropriate only among partners.

- c. If the corporation has a board of directors, the effect of an agreement authorized by this section restricting the discretionary powers of the directors shall be to relieve the directors of, and impose upon the person or persons in whom such discretion or powers are vested, the liability for acts or omissions imposed by law upon directors to the extent that the discretion or powers of the directors are controlled by the agreement.
- d. An election not to have a board of directors in an agreement authorized by this section shall not be valid unless the articles of incorporation contain a statement to that effect in accordance with Part B, Section 15, of this Chapter.
- e. A shareholder agreement authorized by this section shall not be amended except by the unanimous written consent of the shareholders unless otherwise provided in the agreement.
- f. Any action permitted by this section to be taken by shareholders may be taken by the subscribers to shares of the corporation if no shares have been issued at the time of the agreement authorized by the section.
- g. Provisions otherwise required to be stated in corporate bylaws may be contained with equal effect in a shareholder's agreement.
- h. This section shall not prohibit any other agreement among two or more shareholders not otherwise prohibited by law.

Section 17. Shareholders' Right to Inspect Records.

- a. A corporation shall keep at least the following records:
 - 1. Minutes of all shareholders' meetings and board of director's meetings;
 - 2. Appropriate accounting records;
 - 3. Names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of shares held;
 - 4. Current articles of incorporation, bylaws and shareholders' agreements described in Section 16; and
 - 5. Resolutions adopted by the board of directors.
- b. Upon five days written notice, a shareholder of the corporation is entitled to inspect the records referred to in subsection a. above, subject to the following requirements:
 - 1. The shareholder's demand must be made in good faith and for a proper purpose;
 - 2. The shareholder must describe with reasonable particularity his or her purpose and the records he or she desires to inspect;
 - 3. The records must be directly connected with his or her purpose; and

4. The corporation may impose a reasonable charge covering the costs of labor and materials for copies of documents made for the shareholder; provided, however, that the charge may not exceed any estimates of such costs provided to the shareholder.
- c. A corporation may take reasonable steps to prevent the dissemination of trade secrets, proprietary information or other commercially sensitive information to persons other than shareholders.³

Section 18. Annual Meeting. A corporation formed under this Chapter may establish in its articles of incorporation or by-laws, or in a shareholders' agreement authorized by Section 16, a date at which an annual meeting of shareholders shall be held, if called, and if not so established, the date shall be the first business day after May 31st. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, no annual meeting need be held unless a written request therefor is delivered to the corporation by any shareholder not less than 30 days before the date specified for the meeting.

Section 19. Special Meetings of Shareholders.

- a. A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:
 1. on call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or
 2. if the holders of at least 10 percent of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date and deliver to the corporation's secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purposes for which it is to be held.
- b. Special shareholders' meetings may be held on or off of the Prairie Island Indian Community Reservation, at the place stated in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated in the bylaws, special meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.
- c. Only business within the purposes described in the notice sent to shareholders may be conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

Section 20. Notice of Shareholders' Meetings.

- a. A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than 10 nor more than 60 days before the meeting. Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting. Notice shall be given by mail or telephone, using the most recent address or telephone number supplied to the corporation by each shareholder.
- b. If an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time or place if that information is announced before meeting adjournment.

³ Note of Amendment: The Community Council amended this section on September 14, 2022, by Resolution Number 22-09-14-154 to sequentially renumber the subsections. The amendment was intended to improve readability and was not intended to make any substantive change.

Section 21. Shareholder Sale Option at Death.

- a. If the articles of incorporation of a corporation formed under this Chapter provide that this section shall apply to the corporation, the executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased shareholder shall, subject to any directions in the deceased shareholder's last will and testament, have the right to require the corporation to elect either to purchase or cause the purchase of all, but not less than all, of the shares of the decedent pursuant to subsections d. through f., or to be dissolved.
- b. A modification of the provisions in this section shall be valid if it is set forth or referred to in the articles of incorporation.
- c. An amendment to the articles of incorporation to provide that this section shall apply or to delete or modify the provisions of this section shall be approved by the unanimous vote of the holders of each class of shares of the corporation affected by the proposed deletion or modification, whether or not they are otherwise entitled to vote thereon; but if the corporation has no shareholders at the time of the proposed amendment, by the unanimous vote of all of the subscribers or all of the incorporators, as the case may be.
- d. A person exercising rights under this section shall, within six months after the death of the beneficial owner of shares, deliver a written notice to the corporation's registered office specifying the number and class of all shares beneficially owned by the deceased shareholder and stating that an offer by the corporation to purchase such shares is being solicited pursuant to this section. Within 20 days after receipt of the notice, the president of the corporation shall call a special meeting of shareholders, which shall be held not more than 40 days after the call, for the purpose of determining whether to offer to purchase the shares. Approval of action to offer to purchase the shares shall be by affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, excluding the shares covered by the notice. With the consent of all the shareholders entitled to vote for approval, the corporation may allocate some or all of the shares to one or more shareholders, or to other persons, but if the corporation has more than one class of shares, the remaining holders of the class of shares being offered for sale shall have first option to purchase the shares that are not purchased by the corporation in proportion to their shareholdings or such proportion as shall be agreeable to those desiring to purchase. Written notice of any offer to purchase approved by the shareholders, or that no offer to purchase was approved, shall be delivered or sent to the person exercising his rights under this section within 75 days after delivery of the notice soliciting the offer to purchase. Any offer to purchase shall be accompanied by copies of the corporation's balance sheets as of the end of, and profit and loss statements for, its preceding two accounting years and any available interim balance sheet and profit and loss statement.
- e. To the extent the price and other terms for purchasing shares of a transferring shareholder by the corporation or remaining shareholders are fixed or are to be determined pursuant to provisions in the articles of incorporation, the by-laws of the corporation, or by written agreement, those provisions shall be binding, except that in the event of a default in any payment due, subsection h. shall apply and the person exercising his rights under this section shall have the right to petition for dissolution of the corporation. Any offer to purchase shall be accepted or rejected in writing within 15 days.

- f. If an offer to purchase is rejected or no offer to purchase is made, the person exercising rights under this section may commence an action in the Tribal Court. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. The corporation shall be made a party defendant in such action and shall, at its expense, give notice of the commencement of the action to all of its shareholders and such other persons as the court may direct. The court shall proceed to determine the fair value of the shares of the person exercising the rights under this section in accordance with Section 22.e. of this Chapter and enter an order requiring the corporation to cause the purchase of the shares at fair value and on the other terms so determined or to give such person the right to have the corporation dissolved.
- g. Upon the petition of the corporation, the court may modify its decree to change the terms of payment if it finds that the changed financial or legal ability of the corporation or other purchasers of the shares to complete the purchase justifies a modification. Any person making a payment in order to prevent or cure any default by any purchaser shall be entitled to recover the excess payment from the defaulting person.
- h. If the corporation or other purchaser fails for any reason to make any payment specified in the court decree within 30 days after the due date for such payment, the court shall, upon the petition of the person to whom the payment is due and in the absence of good cause shown by the corporation, enter a decree dissolving the corporation.
 - 1. If the fair value of the shares as determined by the court does not materially exceed the last offer made by the corporation prior to the commencement of an action brought pursuant to subsection f. and the court finds that the failure of the person exercising rights under this section to accept the corporation's last offer was arbitrary, vexatious, or not otherwise in good faith, the court may assess all or a portion of the costs and expenses of the action against such person.
 - 2. If the fair value of the shares as determined by the court materially exceeds the amount of the last offer made by the corporation prior to the time a petition was filed pursuant to subsection f. and the court finds that the corporation's last offer was arbitrary, vexatious, or was otherwise not made in good faith, the court may assess all or a portion of the costs and expenses of the action against the corporation.
 - 3. Expenses assessable under subsections 1. and 2. shall include reasonable compensation for and reasonable expenses of any appraisers appointed by the court, and the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party.
 - 4. Except as provided in subsections 1. and 2., the legal costs of an action filed pursuant to subsection f. shall be assessed on an equal basis between the corporation and any party exercising rights under this section, and all other fees and expenses shall be borne by the party incurring the fees and expenses.
- i. Any shareholder may waive his and his estate's and heirs' rights under this section by a signed writing.

- j. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any other agreement not prohibited by law that provides for the purchase of shares of the corporation, nor shall it prevent a shareholder from enforcing any other remedy he may have.

Section 22. Actions by Shareholders of Close Corporations.

- a. Any shareholder of record, the beneficial owner of shares held by a nominee, or the holder of voting trust certificates of a corporation formed under this Chapter may file a petition in the Tribal Court for relief on the grounds that:
 - 1. The directors or those in control of the corporation have or will have conducted the business and affairs of the corporation in a manner which is not in good faith and which is unfair or oppressive as to the petitioner. Such conduct shall include, but shall not be limited to unfairly depriving the shareholder of the benefit of his or her investment in preference to other shareholders by failing to pay dividends which is good faith ought to be paid, or using the payment of wages as an unfair device to divert income from the petitioner.
 - 2. Conditions exist that would be grounds for judicial dissolution of the corporation under Part E, Section 9, of this Chapter.
- b. In determining whether one or more of the conditions specified in subsection a. above exist, the court shall give due consideration to the strict fiduciary duty which shareholders of corporations formed under this Chapter owe to one another, which is the duty of good faith, fairness and loyalty.
- c. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. If the court finds that one or more of the conditions specified in subsection a. exist, it shall grant such relief as in its discretion it deems appropriate, including, without limitation, orders granting one or more of the following types of relief.
 - 1. Canceling, altering or enjoining any resolution or other act of the corporation;
 - 2. Directing or prohibiting any act of the corporation or of shareholders, directors, officers, or other persons party to the action;
 - 3. Canceling or altering any provision contained in the articles of incorporation or by-laws of the corporation;
 - 4. Removing from office any director or officer, or ordering that a person be appointed a director or officer;
 - 5. Requiring an accounting with respect to any matters in dispute;
 - 6. Appointing a custodian to manage the business and affairs of the corporation;
 - 7. Appointing a provisional director who shall have all the rights, powers, and duties of a duly elected director and shall serve for the term and under the conditions established by the court;
 - 8. Ordering the payment of dividends;
 - 9. If the court finds the relief specified in paragraphs 1. through 8. is or would be inadequate or inappropriate, ordering that the corporation is liquidated and dissolved unless either the corporation or one or more of the remaining shareholders has purchased all of the shares of another shareholder at their fair value by a designated date, with the fair value and terms of the purchase to be determined as provided by subsection e. In the event the share purchase is not consummated and the corporation is dissolved and liquidated, any shareholder whose shares were to be purchased shall have the same rights and priorities in the assets of the corporation as would have been the case had no purchase been ordered by the court.

10. Awarding damages to any aggrieved party in addition to or in lieu of any other relief granted.

In determining whether to enter a judgment under paragraph 9, the court shall take into consideration the financial condition of the corporation but shall not refuse to order liquidation solely on the grounds that the corporation has earned surplus or current operating profits.

- d. If the court determines that any party to a proceeding brought under this section has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may award reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and the costs of any appraisers or other experts, to one or more of the other parties.
- e. If the court orders relief pursuant to subsection c.9., the court shall:
 1. Proceed to determine the fair value of the shares to be purchased, considering the going concern value of the corporation, any agreement among the same or all of the shareholders fixing a price or specifying a formula for determining the value of the corporation's shares for any purpose, the recommendations of any appraisers appointed by the court, any legal constraints on the ability of the corporation to acquire the shares to be purchased, and other relevant evidence.
 2. Enter a decree specifying the identity of the purchaser and the terms of the purchase found to be proper under the circumstances, including such provisions as are deemed proper concerning payment of the purchase price in two or more installments, payment of interest on the installments, subordination of the obligation to the rights of other creditors of the corporation, security for the deferred purchase price, and a covenant not to compete or other restriction on the selling shareholder.
 3. Order that the selling shareholder shall, concurrently with the payment of the purchase price, or in the event of an installment purchase concurrently with the payment of the initial payment called for in the order make delivery of all his or her shares and from that date have no rights or claims against the corporation or its directors, officers, or shareholders by reason of his or her having been a director, officer, or shareholder of the corporation, except the right to receive the unpaid balance of the amount awarded under this section and any amounts due under any agreement with the corporation or the remaining shareholders that are not terminated by the court's orders.
 4. Order that if the purchase is not completed in accordance with the court's decree, the corporation shall be liquidated.

- f. Except as otherwise provided in subsection g., the rights of a shareholder to file a proceeding under this section are in addition to and not in lieu of any other rights or remedies the shareholder may have.
- g. No shareholder shall be eligible to file an action under this section until he shall have exhausted any non-judicial remedy for resolution of the issues in dispute to which the shareholder has agreed in writing.

Section 23. Limited Liability. The failure of a corporation to observe usual corporate formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its corporate powers or the management of its business and affairs shall not be grounds for imposing personal liability on the shareholders for obligations of the corporation.

PART C: DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 1. Duties of Board of Directors. Unless the election under Part B, Section 15, of this Chapter to operate without a board of directors has been made, all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of, its board of directors, subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of incorporation.

Section 2. Qualifications of Directors. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors. A director need not be a resident of this state or a shareholder of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe. A director shall be at least 18 years of age.

Section 3. Terms of Directors.

- a. The terms of the initial directors of a corporation expire at the first shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.
- b. The terms of all other directors expire at the next annual shareholder's meeting following their election unless the articles of incorporation provide that their terms are staggered.
- c. A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director's term.
- d. The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.
- e. Despite the expiration of a director's term, he continues to serve until his successor is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

Section 4. Removal of Directors by Shareholders.

- a. The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.
- b. If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove him or her.

- c. A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for that purpose and the meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

Section 5. Removal of Directors by Judicial Proceeding.

- a. The Tribal Court may remove a director of the corporation from office in a proceeding commenced either by the corporation or by its shareholders holding at least 10 percent of the outstanding shares of any class if the court finds that 1. the director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct, or gross abuse of authority or discretion, with respect to the corporation and 2. removal is in the best interest of the corporation.
- b. If the court removes the director, it may bar the director from reelection for a period prescribed by the court.
- c. If shareholders commence a proceeding under subsection a., they shall make the corporation a party defendant.

Section 6. Meetings.

- a. The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings on or off the Prairie Island Dakota Reservation.
- b. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 7. Action Without Meeting.

- a. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.
- b. Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.
- c. A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

Section 8. Notice of Meeting.

- a. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held as provided in the bylaws without notice to directors of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting.
- b. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or shorter period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least two days' notice of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not describe the purpose of the special meeting unless required by the articles of incorporation, bylaws or the provisions of this Chapter.

Section 9. Waiver of Notice.

- a. A director may waive any notice required by this Chapter, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided by subsection (b), the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.
- b. A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to him of the meeting unless that director at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

Section 10. Quorum and Voting.

- a. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number, a quorum of a board of directors consists of a majority of the number of directors.
- b. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to consist of no fewer than one-third of the number of directors.
- c. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.
- d. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless: 1. he objects at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) to holding it or transacting business at the meeting; 2. his dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or 3. he delivers written notice of his dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

Section 11. General Standards for Directors.

- a. A director shall discharge his or her duties as a director, including duties as a member of a committee:
 1. In good faith;
 2. With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
 3. In a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.
- b. In discharging his or her duties a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

1. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
 2. Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or
 3. A committee of the board of directors of which he or she is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.
- c. A director is not acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection b. unwarranted.
- d. A director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, if he or she performed the duties of office in compliance with this section.

Section 12. Director Conflict of Interest.

- a. A conflict-of-interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict-of-interest transaction is voidable by the corporation because of the director's interest in the transaction unless any one of the following is true:
1. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and the board of directors or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction;
 2. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or
 3. The transaction was fair to the corporation.
- b. For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction if 1. another entity in which he or she has a material financial interest or in which he or she is a general partner is a party to the transaction or 2. another entity of which he or she is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.
- c. For purposes of subsection a.1., a conflict-of-interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect validity of any action taken under subsection a.1. if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.
- d. For purposes of subsection a.2., a conflict-of-interest transaction authorized, approved or ratified if it receives the vote of a majority of the shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. Shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection b.1., may not be counted in a vote of shareholders to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict-of-interest transaction under subsection a.2. The vote of those shares, however, is counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this Chapter. A majority of the shares, whether or not present, that are entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

Section 13. Liability for Unlawful Distributions.

- a. Unless he or she complies with the applicable standards of conduct described in Part C, Section 10, of this Chapter, a director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of this Chapter or the articles of incorporation is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating this Chapter or the articles of incorporation.
- b. A director held liable for an unlawful distribution under subsection a. is entitled to contribution:
 1. From every other director who voted for or assented to the distribution without complying with the applicable standards of conduct described in Part C, Section 10, of this Chapter; and
 2. From each shareholder for the amount the shareholder accepted knowing the distribution was made in violation of this act or the articles of incorporation.

Section 14. Officers.

- a. A corporation has the officers described in its bylaws or appointed by the board of directors in accordance with the bylaws.
- b. A duly appointed officer may appoint one or more officers or assistant officers if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.
- c. The bylaws or the board of directors shall delegate to one of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and shareholders' meetings and for authenticating records of the corporation.
- d. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.
- e. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the board of directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the duties of other officers.

Section 15. Standards of Conduct for Officers.

- a. An officer with discretionary authority shall discharge his or her duties under that authority:
 1. In good faith;

2. With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
 3. In a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.
- b. In discharging his or her duties an officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:
1. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; or
 2. Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence.
- c. An officer is not acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection b. unwarranted.
- d. An officer is not liable for any action taken as an officer, or any failure to take any action, if he or she performed the duties of office in compliance with this section.

Section 16. Resignation and Removal of Officers.

- a. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board of directors provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.
- b. A board of directors may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

Section 17. Indemnification of Corporate Agents.

- a. A corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partner, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.
- b. No indemnification shall be made pursuant to this section in respect of any proceeding in which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation.
- c. No person shall be indemnified under this section in respect of any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to him or her, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which he or she shall have been adjudged to be liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.

Section 18. Mandatory Indemnification. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify a director or officer who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she is or was a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with the proceedings.

Section 19. Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by him in that capacity or arising from his status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify him or her against the same liability under this Chapter.

PART D: AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Section 1. Resolution of Proposed Amendment. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Any number of amendments may be submitted to the shareholders, and voted upon by them, at one meeting.

Section 2. Notice of Proposed Amendment. Written notice setting forth a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation or a or a summary of the changes to be affected thereby shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed amendment or summary may be included in the notice of such annual meeting.

Section 3. Vote of Shareholders at Meeting. At the meeting described in Section 2 above, a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment. Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, the proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote thereon. If any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class pursuant to Section 4 above, the proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon, unless a greater majority is required by the provisions of this Chapter.

Section 4. Classes of Shares Entitled to Vote. The holders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, if the amendment would:

- a. Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class;
- b. Increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class;

- c. Effect an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of all or parts of the shares of such class;
- d. Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class;
- e. Change the designations, preferences, limitations or relative rights of the shares of such class;
- f. Change the shares of such class, whether with or without par value, into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of the same class or another class or classes;
- g. Create a new class of shares having rights and preferences prior and superior to the shares of such class, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights and preferences prior or superior to the shares of such class;
- h. In the case of a preferred or special class of shares, divide the unissued shares of such class into series and fix and determine the designation of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of such series or authorize the board of directors to do so;
- i. Limit or deny the existing preemptive rights of the shares of such class; or
- j. Cancel or otherwise affect dividends on the shares of such class which have accrued but have not been declared.

Section 5. Articles of Amendment.

- a. Articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its chief executive officer and shall be verified by the officer who has been delegated responsibility under Part C, Section 14, of this Chapter for authenticating corporate records, and shall set forth:
 - 1. The name of the corporation;
 - 2. The amendment so adopted;
 - 3. The date of the adoption of the amendment by the shareholders;
 - 4. The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote thereon, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon of each such class;
 - 5. The number of shares voted for and against such amendment, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such amendment, respectively;
 - 6. If such amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of issued shares, and if the manner in which the same shall be affected is not set forth in the amendment, then a statement of the manner in which the same shall be affected; and

7. If such amendment effects a change in the amount of stated capital, then a statement of the manner in which the same is affected and a statement expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital as changed by such amendment.
- b. The articles of amendment shall be sent to the Director of Corporations with the fees as provided in this Chapter. If the Director of Corporations approves the amendments, shall be issued a certificate of amendment.

PART E: DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Dissolution By Board of Directors and Shareholders.

- a. A corporation's board of directors may propose dissolution for submission to the shareholders.
- b. For a proposal to dissolve to be adopted:
 1. the board of directors must recommend dissolution to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders; and
 2. the shareholders entitled to vote must approve the proposal to dissolve as provided in subsection e.
- c. The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposal for dissolution on any basis.
- d. The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with Part B, Section 20, of this Chapter. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation.
- e. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors (acting pursuant to subsection c.) require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, in order for the proposal to dissolve to be adopted it must be approved by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on that proposal.

Section 2. Shareholder Option to Dissolve The Corporation.

- a. Unless a shareholder's agreement or the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, any shareholder of a corporation formed under this Chapter has an option to have the corporation dissolved at will. Whenever any such option to dissolve is exercised, the shareholder exercising the option shall give written notice thereof to all other shareholders. The corporation or one or more shareholders of the corporation may offer to purchase the shares at their fair market value from the person exercising the option to dissolve. If the parties cannot agree on the price for the shares or other terms for the sale, any party may bring an action in tribal court to oversee the terms of the sale, utilizing the procedures set forth in Part B, Section 22.e., of this Chapter. If no such written offer to purchase is received within 30 days following the sending of the notice, the dissolution of the corporation shall proceed as if the required number of shareholders having voting power had consented pursuant to Part E, Section 1, of this Chapter.

- b. Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, an amendment to the articles of incorporation to include, modify, or delete a provision authorized by subsection a. shall be approved by the holders of all the outstanding shares, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote thereon, or all of the subscribers or all of the incorporators, as the case may be.

Section 3. Articles of Dissolution.

- a. At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by delivering to the Director of Corporations for filing articles of dissolution setting forth:

 - 2. The date dissolution was authorized;
 - 3. If dissolution was approved by the shareholders:
 - A. the number of votes entitled to be cast on the proposal to dissolve; and
 - B. either the total number of votes cast for and against dissolution or the total number of undisputed votes cast for dissolution and a statement that the number cast for dissolution was sufficient for approval.
 - 4. If voting by voting groups was required, the information required by subparagraph 3. must be separately provided for each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan to dissolve.
 - 5. If the dissolution resulted from the exercise of an option to dissolve authorized by Part E, Section 2, of this Chapter, a copy of the notice required by that section shall be attached.
- b. A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

Section 4. Effect of Dissolution.

 - 4. Distributing its remaining property among its shareholders according to their interests; and
 - 5. Doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs.
- b. Dissolution of a corporation does not:
 - 1. Transfer title to the corporation's property;

2. Prevent transfer of its shares or securities, although the authorization to dissolve may provide for closing the corporation's share transfer records;
3. Subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in Par C, Sections 11 and 15;
4. Change quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or shareholders; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers; or change provisions for amending its bylaws;

- a. A dissolved corporation may dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.
- b. The dissolved corporation shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after its effective date. The written notice must:
 1. Describe information that must be included in a claim;
 2. Provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;
 3. State the deadline, which may not be fewer than 120 days from the effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved corporation must receive the claim; and
 4. State that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.
- c. A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred:
 1. If a claimant who was given written notice under subsection b. does not deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline; or
 2. If a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days from the effective date of the rejection notice.
- d. For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

Section 6. Unknown Claims Against Dissolved Corporation.

- a. A dissolved corporation may also publish notice of its dissolution and request that persons with claims against the corporation present them in accordance with the notice.

 3. State that a claim against the corporation will be barred unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within two years after the publication of the notice.
- c. If the dissolved corporation publishes a newspaper notice in accordance with subsection b., the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved corporation within two years after the publication date of the newspaper notice:
1. A claimant who did not receive written notice under Part E, Section 5, of this Chapter;
 2. A claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved corporation but not acted on;
 3. A claimant whose claim is contingent or based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.
- d. A claim may be enforced under this section:
1. Against the dissolved corporation, to the extent of its undistributed assets; or
 2. If the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a shareholder of the dissolved corporation to the extent of his prorated share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to him in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder's total liability for all claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to him.

Section 7. Grounds For Administrative Dissolution. The Director of Corporations may proceed under Part E, Section 8, of this Chapter to administratively dissolve a corporation if:

- a. the corporation's period of duration stated in its articles of incorporation expires;
- b. responses to the interrogatories under Chapter 1, Section 7, of this Ordinance show that the Corporation has been inactive for a period of at least one year, and there are no plans to reactive the corporation in the future; or
- c. interrogatories under Chapter 1, Section 7, of this Ordinance have not been answered by any of the persons to whom they were directed for a period of 120 days after becoming due; provided, however, that 30 days before commencing a proceeding under this subsection, the Director of Corporation shall notify each person failing to answer such interrogatories of its intent to commence such a proceeding.

Section 8. Procedure For and Effect of Administrative Dissolution.

- a. If the Director of Corporations determines that one or more grounds exist under Part E, Section 7, of this Chapter for dissolving a corporation, it shall serve the corporation with written notice of its determination.
- b. If the corporation does not correct each ground for dissolution or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the Director of Corporations that each ground determined by the Director of Corporations does not exist within 60 days after service of the notice is perfected, the Director of Corporations shall administratively dissolve the corporation by signing a certificate of dissolution that recites the ground or grounds for dissolution and its effective date. The Director of Corporations shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the corporation.

- c. A corporation administratively dissolved continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any business except that necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under Part E, Section 4, of this Chapter and notify claimants under Part E, Sections 5 and 6, of this Chapter. The administrative dissolution of a corporation does not terminate the authority of its registered agent.

Section 9. Grounds For Judicial Dissolution. The Tribal Court may dissolve a corporation:

- a. In a proceeding brought on behalf of the Director of Corporations or other agency or official of the Community if it is established that:
 - 1. the corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud; or
 - 2. the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;
- b. In a proceeding by a shareholder if it is established that:
 - 1. The directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered, or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally, because of the deadlock;
 - 2. The directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;
 - 3. The shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired;
 - 4. The corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or
 - 5. The shareholder has duly exercised an option described in Part E, Section 2, of this Chapter of this Chapter to dissolve the corporation, and the corporation has failed to proceed with filing articles of dissolution or winding up corporate affairs as required by this Chapter;
- c. In a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:

- d. In a proceeding by the corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under court supervision.

Section 10. Procedure for Judicial Dissolution.

- b. The Tribal Court in a proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian with all powers and duties the court directs, take other action required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

Section 11. Decree of Dissolution.

- a. If after a hearing the Tribal Court determines that one or more grounds for judicial dissolution described in Part E, Section 9, of this Chapter exist, it may enter a decree dissolving the corporation and specifying the effective date of the dissolution, and the clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the decree to the Director of Corporations, who shall file it.
- b. After entering the decree of dissolution, the court shall direct the winding up and liquidation of the corporation's business and affairs in accordance with Part E, Section 4, of this Chapter and the notification of claimants in accordance with Part E, Sections 5 and 6, of this Chapter

Section 12. Deposit With Tribal Treasurer. - b. The resignation of a member does not relieve the member from any previously accrued obligations the member may have to the corporation.

Section 5. Termination.

- a. No member may be expelled or suspended, and no membership or memberships may be terminated or suspended except pursuant to a procedure which is fair and reasonable under the circumstances and is carried out in good faith.

- c. A procedure which departs from any procedures set forth in the corporate bylaws for the expulsion, termination or suspension of members or membership rights is not fair and reasonable, unless special circumstances warrant such a departure.

Unless this Chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to members entitled to vote at the meeting.
- b. Notice of members' meetings shall be given by or telephone, using the most recent address or telephone number supplied to the corporation by each member; provided, however, that if it is consistent with the corporation's articles or bylaws, notice may be given by posting and publishing notices instead of mailing or telephoning if the directors determine in good faith that notice so given is reasonably calculated to actually inform all voting members of the meeting.
- c. If an annual or special members' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time or place if that information is announced before meeting adjournment.

Section 10. Waiver of Notice.

- a. A member may waive any notice required by this Chapter, the articles, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided in subsection b. below, the waiver must be in writing, be signed by the member entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

- b. A member's attendance at a meeting:
 - 1. Waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the member at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting;
 - 2. Waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the notice, unless the member objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

If no method of designation or appointment is set forth in the articles or bylaws, the directors (other than the initial directors) shall be elected by the board.

- d. Except as provided in the articles or bylaws:

- f. If at the beginning of a director's term on the board, the articles or bylaws provide that the director may be removed for missing a specified number of board meetings, the board may remove the director for failing to attend the specified number of meetings. - a. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, and except as provided in subsections b. and c., if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:
 - 1. The members, if any, may fill the vacancy; if the vacant office was held by a director elected by a specific voting class, only members of the class are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the members;
 - 2. The board of directors may fill the vacancy; or
 - 3. If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.
- b. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if a vacant office was held by an appointed director, only the person who appointed the director may fill the vacancy.
- c. If a vacant office was held by a designated director, the vacancy shall be filled as provided in the articles or bylaws. In the absence of an applicable article or bylaw provision, the vacancy may not be filled by the board.

- d. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

Section 8. Meetings.

- a. The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings on or off the Prairie Island Dakota Reservation.
- b. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 9. Action Without Meeting.

- a. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.
- b. Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.
- c. A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

Section 10. Notice of Meeting.

- a. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held as provided in the bylaws without notice.
- b. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or shorter period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least two days' notice of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not describe the purpose of the special meeting unless required by the articles of incorporation, bylaws or the provisions of this Chapter.

Section 11. Waiver of Notice.

- a. A director may waive any notice required by this Chapter, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided by subsection b., the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.
- b. A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to him or her of the meeting unless that director at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his or her arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

Section 12. Quorum and Voting.

- a. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number, a quorum of a board of directors consists of a majority of the number of directors.
- b. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to consist of no fewer than one-third of the number of directors.
- c. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.
- d. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless: 1. he or she objects at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival) to holding it or transacting business at the meeting; 2. his or her dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or 3. he or she delivers written notice of his or her dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting.

Section 13. General Standards for Directors.

- a. A director shall discharge his or her duties as a director, including duties as a member of a committee:
 1. In good faith;
 2. With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
 3. In a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.
- b. In discharging his or her duties a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:
 1. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
 2. Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or
 3. A committee of the board of directors of which he or she is not a member, as to matters within its jurisdiction, if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.
- c. A director is not acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection b. unwarranted.

- d. A director shall not be deemed to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of such property, and notwithstanding that the corporation may be a trustee with respect to the property.
- e. A director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, he or she performed the duties of office compliance with this section.

Section 14. Director Conflict of Interest.

- a. A conflict-of-interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict-of-interest transaction is not voidable or the basis for imposing liability on the director if the transaction was fair at the time it was entered into or is approved as provided in subsections b. or c.
- b. A transaction in which a director of a public benefit corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved:
 - 1. In advance by the vote of the board of directors or a committee of the board if:
 - A. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest are disclosed or known to the board or committee of the board; and
 - B. The directors approving the transaction in good faith reasonably believe that the transaction is fair to the corporation; or
 - 2. Before or after it is consummated, by obtaining approval of the:
 - A. Director of Corporations; or
 - B. Tribal Court in an action of which the Director of Corporations is given notice.
- c. A transaction in which a director of a mutual benefit corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved if:
 - 1. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board and the board of directors or the committee of the board authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or
 - 2. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the members and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.
- d. For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction if 1. another entity in which he or she has a material financial interest or in which he or she is a general partner is a party to the transaction or 2. another entity of which he or she is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.
- e. For purposes of subsections b. and c., a conflict-of-interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsections b. and c. if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in subsections b. or c.

- f. For purposes of subsection c.2., a conflict-of-interest transaction is authorized, approved or ratified if it receives the vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be counted under this subsection. Votes cast by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and votes cast by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection d.1., may not be counted in a vote of members to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection c.2.. The vote of these members, however, is counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this Chapter. A majority of the voting members, whether or not present, entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.
- g. The articles, bylaws, or a resolution of the board may impose additional requirements on conflict-of-interest transactions.

Section 15. Liability for Unlawful Payments.

- a.
