¹ Note of Adoption and Amendment: The Community Council adopted Title 3 of the Judicial Code, the precursor to this Ordinance, on December 12, 1992, by Resolution Number 92-157. The Community Council amended Title 3 on September 14, 2022, by Resolution Number 22-9-14-154, to add Notes of Amendment summarizing the legislative history of this Title. The notes of amendment are for convenience only and should not be relied on as mandatory authority. That resolution also standardized subsection-numbering throughout Title 3. The renumbering was a technical change to increase usability and is not intended to affect any content of this Title. The Community Council restated this Ordinance on October 26, 2022, by Resolution Number 22-10-26-193, as part of a comprehensive ordinance-reformatting project. The changes in this restatement were not substantive unless otherwise noted in the legislative history of this Ordinance.

No more important power is exercised by Indian Tribes than the power to protect and govern the domestic relations of their members. The purpose of this Ordinance is to inform Community members of that inherent sovereign authority and enable them to use their own Tribal forum for resolution of domestic relations issues.

- c. Authority. [reserved].

- b. Who May Marry.

No person under the age of 18 years may marry without the written consent of both parents if the person is living with both parents, or the parent with whom the person lives if only one parent. If the person is not living with either parent, the written consent of the nearest adult relative with whom the minor is living or of a guardian appointed by the Tribal Court. If any person authorized to give consent to the marriage of a minor is incapable of giving such consent because of mental incapacity or otherwise, a guardian appointed by the Tribal Court may give consent instead of such persons.
 2. Blood Relationships. Persons related by blood in the form of parent, or by whole or half-blood in the form of sibling, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or first cousin may not marry one another.
 3. Gender.² Two persons of the same or opposite gender may marry.

 5. Persons Already Married. No person who is already married in this or any other jurisdiction may be licensed to be married in the Tribal Court except as provided in Section 5(b)(6), Absent Spouse Provisions.
 6. Absent Spouse Provisions.
 - A. A person who is already married, but whose spouse has been absent for five consecutive years and whom the person wishing to marry reasonably believes to be dead, may marry if she or he obtains a judicial determination that the absent spouse is presumed dead if the Tribal Court makes a finding and order after hearing that the absent spouse is presumed dead.
 - B. A judge may make such a finding and order only after notice of hearing to the absent spouse. Publication of the notice of hearing in three consecutive issues of a newspaper having general circulation on the Reservation and publication in three consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the county of the absent spouse's last known residence, if known, shall be sufficient notice.
 - C. No hearing on an application for presumption of death of spouse shall be heard before thirty (30) days from the last publication of notice of hearing.

² Note of Amendment: The Community Council amended this subsection on March 22, 2017, by Resolution Number 17-03-22-44, to remove the prohibition against same-gender marriage.

- D. The fact that an absentee spouse was exposed to specific peril of death may be sufficient grounds for finding that she or he died less than five years from the last date on which she or he was heard from.
- c. Marriage Requirements—Generally.
1. License Requirement. Anyone wishing to marry under the jurisdiction of the Community as defined in Section 5(a), Jurisdiction, must first obtain a marriage license from the Tribal Clerk of Courts.
 - A.  - B. The contracting parties may marry according to the rites of any church, in which case they, the officiating member of the clergy, and two witnesses shall sign in the places provided on the face of the marriage license. See Appendix of Forms. A marriage may be solemnized by a judge of the Tribal Court, by the Chairperson of the Community, by an individual of any religious denomination designated as having authority to perform marriages according to the form and usage of his or her religion or by a person recognized by Minnesota law as having authority to perform marriages.
- d. Validity of Marriages.
1. Valid Marriages. Valid marriages performed or licensed by the Prairie Island Mdewakanton Dakota Tribal Courts are those which comply with Sections 3 and 4 of this Chapter of the Prairie Island Mdewakanton Dakota Judicial Code. A valid divorce decree is necessary to terminate a valid marriage, absent death or annulment. All marriages performed other than as provided for in this Code, which are valid under the laws of the jurisdiction where and when performed, are valid within the jurisdiction of the Prairie Island Mdewakanton Dakota Community.

2. Voidable Marriages. Voidable marriages are those in which one or more of the elements of Section 6 of this Chapter are met: Either of the parties to a voidable marriage may have the marriage annulled upon a motion to the Prairie Island Mdewakanton Dakota Community Court and granting of the motion by the Court. Annulment of a marriage means that for legal purposes, the marriage never existed.
 3. Void Marriages. Marriages which violate one or more of the following requirements of this Code are void without any decree of divorce or other legal proceedings: Sections 5(b)(2) (Blood Relationships); Section 5(b)(3), (Gender); Section 5(b)(4), (Competency); or Section 5(b)(4), (Persons Already Married).
- e. Annulment.
1. Grounds for Annulment. A marriage may be annulled for any of the following causes existing at the time of marriage:
 - A. That the party in whose behalf annulment is sought was under the age of 18 years, and such marriage was contracted without the consent of his or her parents or guardian, or persons having charge of him or her, unless, after attaining the age of consent, such party freely cohabits with the other as husband and wife;
 - B. That the consent of either party was obtained by fraud, unless such party afterward, with full knowledge of the facts constituting the fraud; freely cohabited with the other as husband or wife
 - C. That the consent of either party was obtained by force, unless such party afterwards freely cohabited with the other as husband or wife; or
 - D. Impotence that continues and appears to be incurable.
 2. Action to Annul - Parties and Limitations. An action to obtain a decree of annulment of a marriage, for causes mentioned in Section 5(e)(1), Grounds for Annulment, must be commenced within the periods and by the parties as follows:
 - A. For causes mentioned in Section 5(e)(1)(A), by the party to marriage who was married under the age of legal consent, within two years after arriving at the age of consent, or by a parent, guardian or other person having charge of such minor, at any time before such married minor has attained the age of legal consent;
 - B. For causes mentioned in Section 5(e)(1)(B) by the party injured, within two years after the discovery of the facts constituting a fraud;
 - C. For causes mentioned in Section 5(e)(1)(C) by the injured party within four years after the marriage.

- D. For causes mentioned in Section 5(e)(1)(D) by the injured party within two years after the marriage.
3. Application of Laws of Succession. When a marriage is annulled for any reason, other than if for fraud in that the wife is pregnant with a child from a man other than the husband, children born before judgment may succeed to the estate of both parents. The Court may at the time of granting the annulment or at any future time, make necessary orders for the custody and support of said child or children as the circumstances or the parents may require.

Section 6. Marital Property.

- a. Separate Property. The separate property of each spouse is anything that she or he owned prior to the marriage and separate gifts and inheritances acquired during the marriage. The separate property of either spouse is not liable for the debts of the other spouse.
- b. Debt. The marital property is liable for the debts contracted during the marriage by either spouse.
- c. Termination of Marital Property. Marital property shall cease to be acquired upon the filing of a petition for divorce by either party, provided the petition leads to the dissolution of the marriage.

Section 7. Divorce.

- a. Proceeding; How and Where Brought.³ The Community shall have jurisdiction over all Community members and their spouses for the dissolution of a marriage before the Tribal Courts of the Prairie Island Mdewakanton Dakota Community.
- b. Grounds for Divorce. A divorce shall be granted if the Tribal Court finds that there has been an irretrievable breakdown of the marriage relationship. The Tribal Court will find that there has been an irretrievable breakdown of a marriage if one of the spouses alleges an irretrievable breakdown and that there is no reasonable prospect of reconciliation.
- c. Filing Fee. A filing fee of not greater than $100.00 will be charged by the Clerk of Tribal Courts for the filing of divorce petitions. If a person is unable to afford the filing fee, upon petition to the Tribal Court, it may be waived.
- d. Division of Property Upon Divorce.
1. Marital Property. If no valid antenuptial contract to the contrary exists between the spouses, the marital property of the spouses is to be divided equitably upon divorce. The Tribal Court shall consider the length of the marriage; the contributions, financial and non-financial of both spouses; the standard of living to which each spouse has become accustomed; the financial needs of each spouse; and any other factor the Court finds appropriate. The Tribal Court shall not consider the misconduct of either spouse when making its determination.

³ Note of Amendment: The Community Council added this subsection on October 1, 1999, by Resolution Number 99-10-1-91.

2. Separate Property. If no valid antenuptial contract to the contrary exists between the spouses, the separate property of each of the spouses remains the property of the respective spouse. Separate property of a spouse may be given to the other spouse only to prevent unfair hardship.
3. Untraceable Property. If no valid antenuptial contract to the contrary exists between the spouses, property which cannot be traced as separate property of one of the spouses is considered marital property for the purpose of division of property between the spouses.
4. Professional Degrees. If no valid antenuptial contract to the contrary exists between the spouses, professional degrees earned by one spouse while the other spouse supported him or her are not marital property, but the Tribal Court shall consider such contributions in its equitable distribution of the marital property.
5. Per Capita Payments to Tribal Members. Per capita payments from the Community to its eligible members are the separate property of the person to whom they are issued. Per capita payments shall not be awarded pursuant to the hardship exception of Section 7(d)(2), Separate Property.
6. Pensions. If no valid antenuptial contract to the contrary exists, pension plan benefits or rights in the form of future pension plan payments:
 - A. Are payable only to the extent of the amount of the pension plan benefit payable under the terms of the plan;
 - B. Are not payable for a period that exceeds the time that pension plan benefits are payable to the pension plan benefit recipient;
 - C. Are not payable in a lump sum amount from pension plan assets attributable in any fashion to a spouse with the status of an active member, deferred retiree, or benefit recipient of a pension plan;
 - D. If the former spouse to whom the payments are to be made dies prior to the end of the specified payment period with the right to any remaining payments accruing to an estate or to more than one survivor, is payable only to a trustee on behalf of the estate or the group of survivors for subsequent apportionment by the trustee; and
 - E. In the case of public pension plan benefits or rights, property division may not commence until the public plan member submits a valid application for a public pension plan benefit and the benefit becomes payable.
7. Modification of Property Award.
 - A. All divisions of real and personal property provided by this Section 7(d), Division of Property Upon Divorce, shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the Court finds the existence of one of the following:
 - i. Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect;

- ii. Newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under the Prairie Island Indian Community Rules of Civil Procedure.
 - iii. Fraud, whether denominated intrinsic or extrinsic, misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;
 - iv. The judgment and decree or order is void; or
 - v. The judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment and decree or order upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment and decree or order should have prospective application
- B. A motion for modification must be made within a reasonable time, and for a reason under Sections 7(d)(7)(A)(i), (ii), or (iii), not more than one year after the judgment and decree, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under Section 7(d)(7), Modification of Property Award, does not affect the finality of a judgment and decree or order or suspend its operation. Section 7(d)(7), Modification of Property Award, does not limit the power of the Tribal Court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment and decree, order, or proceeding or to grant relief to a party not actually personally notified as provided in the Prairie Island Indian Community Rules of Civil Procedure, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the Court.
- e. Maintenance.
1. When Awarded. If no valid antenuptial contract or settlement stipulation to the contrary exists between the spouses, maintenance may be awarded in cases the Tribal Court deems appropriate. The Tribal Court shall consider the length of the marriage; contributions, financial and non-financial, of both spouses; the standard of living to which each spouse has become accustomed; the financial needs of both spouses; and any other factor the Court finds appropriate. The Tribal Court shall not consider misconduct of either spouse when making its determination.
 2. Modification of Maintenance Award.
 - A. After an order for maintenance, the Tribal Court may from time to time, upon motion of either of the parties or upon motion of the public authority responsible for support enforcement, modify the order respecting the appropriation and payment of the principal and income of property held in trust, and may make an order respecting these matters which it might have made in the original proceeding, except as herein otherwise provided.
 - B. The terms of a decree respecting maintenance may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following:
 - i. Substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party;
 - ii. Substantially increased or decreased need of a party;

- iii. Receipt of public assistance;
 - iv. A change in the cost of living for either party measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair. On a motion for modification of maintenance, the Tribal Court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under Section 7(e)(1) that exist at the time of the motion. A modification of maintenance may be made retroactive only with respect to any period during which the moving party has pending a motion for modification but only from the date of service of notice of the motion on the responding party.
3. Termination of Maintenance. Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, the obligation to pay future maintenance is terminated upon the death of either party or the remarriage of the party receiving maintenance.
 4. Per Capita Payments.⁴ The Court may not consider the distribution of net gaming proceeds made from the Community to qualified Community members under the Prairie Island Indian Community Gaming Revenue Allocation Ordinance (“Per capita payments”) when establishing or amending an order for maintenance. Per capita payments made to qualified Community members under the Community’s Gaming Revenue Allocation Ordinance are a personal benefit. Net gaming proceeds, from which per capita payments are made, are the collective property of the Community until and unless they are distributed to qualified Community members, at the discretion of the Community Council and pursuant to the Gaming Revenue Allocation Ordinance. Qualified Community members do not have a property right to future per capita distributions and such future distributions are not subject to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance or charge, seizure, attachment or other legal, equitable, or other process, except with the consent of the qualified Community member and with the prior consent of the Community Council.
- f. Child Support.
1. When Awarded.⁵
 - A. Child support shall be paid by the non-custodial parent as follows:

B. Guidelines for support to be paid by a non-custodial parent with a monthly income of $4,001 or more shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income of $4,000.

C. Net Income defined as: Total monthly income less:

- i. Federal income tax;
- ii. State income tax;
- iii. Social Security Deductions;
- iv. Reasonable pension deductions;
- v. Union Dues use of tax tables;
- vi. Cost of dependent insurance coverage;

*Standard deductions apply—

- viii. A child support or maintenance order that is currently being paid.

D. Net Income does not include:

- i. The income of the non-custodial parent's spouse, but does include in-kind payments received by the non-custodial parent in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business if the payments reduce the obligor's living expenses; or
 - ii. Compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that:
 - 01. support is nonetheless ordered in an amount at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and
 - 02. the party demonstrates, and the Court finds, that:
 - a. The excess employment began after the filing of the petition for dissolution;
 - b. The excess employment reflects an increase in the work schedule or hours worked over that of the two years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;
 - c. The excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;
 - d. The excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fraction of an hour; and
 - e. The party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation.
2. Other Factors to be Considered. In addition to the child support guidelines, the Court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support:
- A. All earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property, but excluding income from excess employment of the obligor or obligee that meets the criteria of Subsection (a)(2)(ii);
 - B. The financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;
 - C. The standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;
 - D. The amount of the aid to families with dependent children grant for the child or children;

- E. Which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it; and
 - F. The parents' debts as provided in subsection (c).
3. Debts Owed to Private Creditors. In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the Court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:
- A. The Tribal Court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income, the Court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to continuing generation of income; and
 - B. The party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid. Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the Court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period. Where payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.
4. When Guidelines Shall be Exceeded or Modified. Nothing shall preclude the Court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.
5. Nature of Guidelines. The above guidelines are binding in each case unless the Court makes express findings of fact as to the reason for departure below or above the guidelines.
6. Modification of Child Support Award.
- A. After an order for child support, the Tribal Court may from time to time, on motion of either of the parties or on motion of the public authority responsible for support enforcement, modify the order respecting the appropriation and payment of the principal and income of property held in trust, and may make an order respecting these matters which it might have made in the original proceeding, except as herein otherwise provided.
 - B. The terms of a decree respecting child support may be modified upon a showing that any one or more of the following makes the terms unreasonable and unfair:
 - i. Substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party;
 - ii. Substantially increased or decreased need of a party;
 - iii. Receipt of public assistance;

- iv. A change in the cost of living for either party measured by the federal bureau of statistics;

C. On a motion for modification of child support, the Tribal Court shall:

- i. Take into consideration the needs of the children and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any;
- ii. Not consider compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that the party demonstrates, and the Court finds, that:
 - 01. The excess employment began after entry of the existing support order;
 - 02. The excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;
 - 03. The excess employment is in the nature of additional, part- time employment, or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fractions of an hour;
 - 04. The party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation;
 - 05. In the case of an obligor, current child support payments are at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

D. A modification of child support may be made retroactive only with respect to any period during which the petitioning party has pending a motion for modification but only from the date of service of notice of the motion on the responding party. However, modification may be applied to an earlier period if the Court makes express findings that the party seeking modification was precluded from serving a motion by reason of a significant physical or mental disability or a material misrepresentation of another party and that the party seeking modification, when no longer precluded, promptly served a motion.

- 7. Termination. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, with Court approval, or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for child support are terminated by emancipation of the child but not by the death of a parent obligated to support the child. When a parent obligated to pay support dies, the amount of support may be modified, revoked, or commuted to a lump sum payment, to the extent just and appropriate in the circumstance.
- 8. Forms. The Clerk of Court shall make available to courts, obligors and persons to whom child support is owed, a form to be submitted by the obligor or the person to whom child support is owed in support of a motion for modification of an order pursuant to this section.

g. Enforcement of Child Support.

1. The Community Council shall attempt to reach understandings with state and county governments regarding the enforcement of Tribal Court support orders. For enforcement matters arising exclusively within the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court, the procedure set forth in Minnesota Statutes Section 518.600 et seq. may be used by any party seeking to enforce a valid Tribal Court order. Use of such enforcement procedures shall not be deemed an adoption of Minnesota law by the Community or Tribal Court.
2. The Tribal Court may order a delinquent obligor to authorize the Community Council to withhold his or her child support obligation from each per capita payment until the child support obligation expires or is terminated.

h. Medical Support.

1. Obligor to Name Beneficiary. Unless the parent who has not been ordered to pay support (obligee) has comparable or better group dependent health insurance coverage available at a more reasonable cost, the Court shall order the person paying support (obligor) to name the minor child as beneficiary on any health and dental insurance plan that is available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union.
2. If the Tribal Court finds that dependent health or dental insurance is not available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union, or that the group insurer is not accessible to the obligee, the Court may require the obligor to obtain dependent health or dental insurance, or to be liable for reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child. If the Tribal Court finds that the dependent health or dental insurance required to be obtained by the obligor does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses, the Court shall require the obligor to be liable for all or a portion of the medical or dental expenses of the child not covered by the required health or dental plan.
3. The Court shall require the obligor to provide dependent health and dental insurance for the benefit of the obligee if it is available at no additional cost to the obligor and in this case the provisions of this subsection apply.
4. A copy of the Court order for insurance coverage shall be forwarded to the obligor's employer or union by the obligee or the public authority responsible for support enforcement only when ordered by the Court or when the following conditions are met:
 - A. The obligor fails to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority, within 30 days of receiving effective notice of the Court order, that the insurance has been obtained or that application for insurability has been made;
 - B. The obligee or the public authority serves written notice of its intent to enforce medical support on the obligor by mail at the at the obligor's last known post office address; and

- C. The obligor fails within 15 days after the mailing of the notice to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority that the insurance coverage existed as of the date of mailing. The employer or union, if based on the Reservation or whose business is substantially carried out on the Reservation, shall forward a copy of the order to the health and dental insurance plan offered by the employer.
5. If the employer is the Community, a Tribally owned business, a Tribally chartered corporation or a business located on the Reservation or a business whose activities are substantially carried out on the Reservation, the order is binding on the employer or union when service under subsection (c) has been made. For all other business or unions, the Tribal Court will attempt to obtain voluntary compliance with its orders. Upon receipt of the order, or upon application of the obligor pursuant to the order, the employer or union shall enroll the minor child as a beneficiary in the group insurance plan and withhold any required premium from the obligor's income or wages. If more than one plan is offered by the employer or union, the child shall be enrolled in the insurance plan in which the obligor is enrolled or the least costly plan otherwise available to the obligor. Failure of the obligor to execute any documents necessary to enroll the dependent in the group health and dental insurance plan will not affect the obligation of the qualified employer or union and group health insurance plan to enroll the dependent in a plan for which other eligibility requirements are met. Information and authorization provided by the public authority responsible for the child support enforcement, or by the custodial parent or guardian, is valid for the purposes of meeting enrollment requirements of the health plan. The insurance coverage for a child eligible under subsection (e) shall not be terminated except as authorized in subsection (e).
 6. A minor child that an obligor is required to cover as a beneficiary pursuant to this section is eligible for insurance coverage as a dependent of the obligor until the child is emancipated or until further order of the Tribal Court.
 7. The signature of the custodial parent of the insured dependent is a valid authorization to the insurer for purposes of processing an insurance reimbursement payment to the provider of the medical services. When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect and the obligor's employment with the Community, a Community-owned or -chartered business, or a business located or whose activities are substantially carried out on the Reservation is terminated, or the insurance coverage is terminated, the insurer shall notify the obligee within 10 days of the termination date with notice of conversion privileges. All other employers shall be provided notice by this title and requested to voluntarily comply with such notice.
 8. When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect, the obligor's employer or union shall release to the obligee or the public authority, upon request, information on the dependent coverage, including the name of the insurer. The employer or union shall release a quarterly report of the wages paid to the

- employee, including the employee's name, social security number, the total wages paid to the employee, and the number of weeks in which work was performed to the public agency responsible for support enforcement that is enforcing an order for medical or dental insurance coverage under this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection, "wages paid" includes wages actually or constructively paid and wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment.
9. The obligor that fails to maintain the medical or dental insurance for the benefit of the children as ordered shall be liable to the obligee for any medical or dental expenses incurred from the date of the Tribal Court Order. Proof of failure to maintain insurance constitutes a showing of increased need by the obligee and provides a basis for a modification of the obligor's child support order.
 10. Any Tribal agency responsible for support enforcement shall take necessary steps to implement and enforce an order for dependent health or dental insurance whenever the children receive public assistance, or upon application of the obligee to the Tribal agency and payment by the obligee of any fees required by this Ordinance.
 11. Remedies available for the collection and enforcement of child support, whether provided by the Community or through cooperative agreement with other public agencies, may also apply to medical support. For the purpose of enforcement, the costs of individual or group health or hospitalization coverage or liabilities pursuant to subsection (h) are additional child support.
 12. The provisions regarding medical support may be modified or waived by the Court at its discretion if the parties demonstrate to the Court's satisfaction that the minor children are currently eligible for comparable medical services through the Indian Health Service of the federal government.

Section 8. Child Custody and Visitation Upon Divorce.

a. Custody.

1. Determinations regarding custody of the children of the parties will be made based on the best interests of the children. When making a custody determination, the Tribal Court shall consider Tribal membership/affiliation of the parents or petitioning parties if not a parent and may give preference to Tribal members only if to do so is in the best interests of the child.
2. "Best interests of the child" means all relevant factors to be considered by the Tribal Court including, but not limited to:
 - A. The wishes of the child's parent or parents as to custody;
 - B. The reasonable preference of the child, if the Court deems the child to be of sufficient age to express preference;
 - C. The child's primary caretaker;
 - D. The intimacy of the relationship between each parent and the child;

- E. The interaction and interrelationship of the child with a parent or parents, siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;
 - F. The child's adjustment to home, school, and community;
 - G. The length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining continuity;
 - H. The permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home;
 - I. The mental and physical health of all individuals involved;
 - J. The capacity and disposition of the parties to give the child love, affection, and guidance, and to continue educating and raising the child in the child's culture and religion or creed, if any;
 - K. The Tribal membership/affiliation of the parent or petitioning party if other than a parent;
 - L. The child's Tribal or cultural background; and
 - M. The effect of domestic abuse on the child if such abuse has occurred within the household of the child. Domestic abuse means:
 - i. physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or the infliction of fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury or assault, between family or household members; or
 - ii. criminal sexual conduct, as defined by Minn. Stat. §§ 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, committed against a minor family or household member by an adult family or household member.
- b. Visitation.
1. In any proceeding for divorce, the Tribal Court shall, upon the request of either parent, grant such rights to visitation on behalf of the child and noncustodial parent to maintain a child-to-parent relationship that will be in the best interests of the child. If the Court finds, after a hearing, that visitation is likely to endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development, the Court shall restrict visitation by the noncustodial parent as to time, place, duration, or supervision and may deny visitation entirely, as the circumstances warrant. A parent's failure to pay support because of the parent's inability to do so will not be sufficient cause for denial of visitation.
 2. Upon the request of either parent, the Court may inform any child of the parties, if eight years of age or older, or otherwise of an age of suitable comprehension, of the rights of the child and the noncustodial parent under the order or decree or any substantial amendment thereof. The custodial parent shall present the child for visitation by the noncustodial parent, at such times as the Court directs.
 3. The custodial parent shall not move the residence of the child to a residence within another state or to another Reservation except upon order of the Tribal Court or with the consent of the noncustodial parent, when the noncustodial parent has been given visitation rights by the decree. If the Court determines after hearing that the purpose of the move is to interfere with visitation rights given to the noncustodial parent by the decree, the Court shall not permit a change of residence described herein.

4. Proof of an unwarranted denial of or interference with duly established visitation may constitute contempt of Court and may be sufficient cause for reversal of custody.
5. Modification. The Tribal Court shall modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child. Except as provided below, the Tribal Court may not restrict visitation rights unless it finds that:
 - A. The visitation is likely to endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development; or
 - B. The noncustodial parent has chronically and unreasonably failed to comply with Court-ordered visitation.

c. Effect of Certain Convictions on Custody and Visitation Rights.

1. Suspension of Visitation Rights; Transfer of Custody.

A. If a person with Court-ordered custody or visitation rights is convicted of a crime listed in Section 8(C)(2), Application, and if no action is pending regarding custody or visitation, the sentencing Court, if the Prairie Island Mdewakanton Dakota Tribal Court shall:

- i. Grant temporary custody to the non-custodial parent, unless it finds that another custody arrangement is in the best interests of the child; or
- ii. Suspend visitation rights, unless it finds that visitation with the convicted person is in the best interests of the child.

When the sentencing Court is a federal or state court, the Tribal Court, upon official notification of such conviction, shall:

- iii. Grant temporary custody to the non-custodial parent, unless it finds that another custody arrangement is in the best interests of the child; or
- iv. Suspend visitation rights, unless it finds that visitation with the convicted person is in the best interests of the child.

The Tribal Court shall expedite proceedings under this section. The defendant has the burden of proving that continued custody or visitation with the defendant is in the best interests of the child. If the victim of the crime was a family or household member, the standard of proof is clear and convincing evidence. "Family or household members" means spouses, former spouses, parents and children, persons related by blood, and persons who are presently residing together or who have resided together in the past, and persons who have a child in common regardless of whether they have been married or lived together at any time.

- B. If a person who has child custody or visitation rights was convicted of a crime listed in Section 8(c)(2), Application, before the enactment of this Ordinance, then any interested party may petition this Court for relief under Section 8(c)(1)(A) if:
 - i. The defendant is currently incarcerated, on probation, or under supervised release for the offense; or
 - ii. The victim of the crime was a family or household member as defined above.
- 2. Application. Section 8(C)(1), Suspension of Visitation Rights; Transfer of Custody, applies to the following crimes or similar crimes under the laws of any other jurisdiction:
 - A. Murder in the first, second, or third degree, as defined in Minn. Stat. §§ 609.185, 609.19, or 609.195, for example;
 - B. Manslaughter in the first degree, as defined in Minn. Stat. §609.20, for example;
 - C. Assault in the first, second, or third degree, as defined in Minn. Stat. §§ 609.221, 609.222, or 609.223, for example;
 - D. Kidnapping, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.25, for example;
 - E. Depriving another of custodial or parental rights, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.26, for example;
 - F. Soliciting, inducing, or promoting prostitution involving a minor, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.322, for example;
 - G. Receiving profit from prostitution involving a minor, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.323, for example;
 - H. Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.342, for example;
 - I. Criminal sexual conduct in the second degree, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.343, for example;
 - J. Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.344, Subdivision 1, paragraph (c), (f), or (g), for example;
 - K. Solicitation of a child to engage in sexual conduct, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.352, for example;
 - L. Incest, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.365, for example;
 - M. Malicious punishment of a child, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 609.377, for example; or

- N. Neglect of a child, as defined in Minnesota Statutes § 609.378, for example.
- d. Per Capita Payments to Children. Unless the Prairie Island Indian Community Gaming Revenue Allocation Ordinance directs otherwise, any per capita payments that the children of a marriage may receive will be under the control of the custodial parent, to be used in the children's best interests. If this Ordinance conflicts with the Gaming Revenue Allocation Ordinance, the Gaming Revenue Allocation Ordinance controls.
- e. Modification of Custody Orders.
1. Unless agreed to in writing by the parties, no motion to modify a custody order may be made earlier than one year after the date of the entry of a decree of dissolution containing a provision dealing with custody, except in accordance with clause (c).
 2. If a motion for modification has been heard, whether or not it was granted, unless agreed to in writing by the parties no subsequent motion may be filed within two years after disposition of the prior motion on its merits, except in accordance with clause (c).
 3. The time limitations prescribed in clauses (a) and (b) shall not prohibit a motion to modify a custody order if the Court has reason to believe that there may be persistent and willful denial or interference with visitation, or has reason to believe that the child's present environment may endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development. The Court shall make such determination(s) based upon the affidavits of the parties.
 4. The Court shall not modify a prior custody order after hearing on the motion unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior order or that were unknown to the Court at the time of the prior order, that a change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or the custodian and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests of the child. In applying these standards the Court shall retain the custodian established by the prior order unless the Court finds:
 - A. The custodian agrees to the modification;
 - B. The child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the custodian; or
 - C. The child's present environment endangers the child's physical or emotional health or impairs the child's emotional development and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child.

Section 9. Rules of Procedure for Divorce, Annulment, Property Division, Visitation, and Child Custody Actions.

- a. Applicability of Rules. These rules apply to all proceedings dealing with divorce and child custody. If any conflict exists between these rules and the Prairie Island Indian Community Rules of Civil Procedure, these rules control.
- b. Commencement; continuance; time; parties.
 1. Commencement of proceedings.
 - A. Marriage dissolution proceedings shall be commenced by service of a summons and petition upon the person of the other party, or by publication pursuant to Tribal Court order. Service of process in other domestic relations matters shall be governed by the Prairie Island Indian Community Rules of Civil Procedure unless otherwise noted.
 - B. No summons shall be required if a joint petition is filed. Proceedings shall be commenced when both parties have signed the verified petition and filed it with the Court.
 - C. Service of the summons and petition may be made by publication only upon an order of the Tribal Court. If the respondent subsequently is located, personal service shall be made before the final hearing.
 2. Continuances. If a trial date has been established by the Court pursuant to a scheduling order after consultation with the parties, the Court shall decline to consider requests for continuance except those made by motion or when a judge determines that an emergency exists. A single request for a reasonable continuance of a trial date, by notice without hearing, may be granted by the Court upon agreement of all parties, provided that the request is made within 20 days after notice of the trial date to the parties. All other requests for continuance shall be made by motion with notice to all parties. No continuance of a motion hearing shall be granted unless requested within 3 days of receiving notice under Section 9(c)(1)(A), Notice, unless good cause is shown.
 3. Time. Time is governed by the Prairie Island Indian Community Rules of Civil Procedure, except where a different time is specified in this Ordinance. Procedural time limits may be shortened for good cause shown.
 4. Designation of Parties.
 - A. Parties to dissolution and custody proceedings shall be designated as petitioner (joint petitioners) and respondent. After so designating the parties, it is permissible to refer to them as wife and husband by inserting the following in any petition, order, decree, etc.:
 - B. Petitioner is hereinafter referred to as (wife/husband), and respondent as (husband/wife).
 - C. A guardian ad litem for minor children may be designated a party to the proceedings in the order of appointment.

c. Motions; Ex Parte Relief; Orders To Show Cause; Orders and Decrees.

1. Scheduling of Motions.

A. Notice.

- ii. Except in cases in which the parties reside in the same residence and there is a possibility of abuse, a party who obtains a date and time for hearing a motion shall promptly give notice of the hearing date and time and the name of the judge or referee, if known, to all other parties in the action. If the parties reside in the same residence and there is a possibility of abuse, notice shall be given in accordance with the Prairie Island Indian Community Rules of Civil Procedure.

B. Notice of Time to Respond. All motions and orders to show cause shall contain the following statement:

“All responsive pleadings shall be served and mailed to or filed with the Prairie Island Mdewakanton Dakota Community Tribal Court Clerk of Court no later than five days prior to the scheduled hearing. The Court may, in its discretion, disregard any responsive pleadings served or filed with the Clerk of Courts less than five days prior to such hearing in ruling on the motion or matter in question.”

2. Form of Motion.

A. Specificity and Supporting Documents. Motions shall set out with particularity the relief requested in individually numbered paragraphs. All motions must be supported by appropriate affidavits, relevant and material to the issues before the Court. The paragraphs of the affidavits should be specific and factual; where possible, they should be numbered to correspond to the paragraphs of the motion.

B. Application for Temporary Relief. When temporary financial relief is initially requested, such as child support, maintenance and attorney’s fees, the application for temporary relief form set forth at the Appendix of Forms to this Ordinance shall be served and filed by the moving and responding parties. Additional facts, limited to relevant and material matters, shall be added at paragraph 10 of the application form or by supplemental affidavit. Sanctions for failure to comply include, but are not limited to, the striking of pleadings or hearings.

3. Motion Practice.

A. Requirements for Motions.

- i. Moving Party, Supporting Documents, Time Limits. No motion shall be heard unless the initial moving party serves a copy of the following documents on opposing counsel, or responding party if not represented by counsel, and files the original with the Clerk of Tribal Courts at least 14 days prior to the hearing:
 01. Notice of motion in form required by 9(c)(1)(A), Notice;
 02. Motion;
 03. Any relevant affidavits and exhibits; and
 04. Any memorandum of law the party intends to submit.
- ii. Motion Raising New Issues. A responding party raising new issues other than those raised in the initial motion shall serve a copy of the following documents on opposing counsel, or responding party if not represented by counsel, and shall file the original with the Clerk of Tribal Courts at least 10 days prior to the hearing:
 01. Notice of the motion in form required by 9(c)(1)(A), Notice;
 02. Motion;
 03. Any relevant affidavits and exhibits; and
 04. Any memorandum of law the party intends to submit.
- iii. Responding Party, Supporting Documents, Time Limits. The party responding to issues raised in the initial motion, or the party responding to a motion which raises new issues, shall serve a copy of the following documents on opposing counsel, or responding party if not represented by counsel, and shall file the original with the Clerk of Tribal Courts at least five days prior to the hearing, inclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays:
 01. Any memorandum of law the party intends to submit;
 02. Any relevant affidavits and exhibits.
- iv. Computation of Time for Service and Filing by Mail. Whenever this rule requires documents to be filed with the Clerk of Tribal Courts within a prescribed period of time before a specific event, filing may be accomplished by mail, subject to the following:
 01. 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period; and
 02. Filing shall not be considered timely unless the documents are deposited in the mail within the prescribed period. If the matter of timeliness is contested, only the official postmark of the U.S. Mail, Federal Express, or U.P.S. shall be considered by the Court.
 03. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

- B. Failure to Comply. In the event an initial moving party fails to timely serve and file documents required in this rule, the hearing may be canceled by the Court. If responsive papers are not properly served and filed, the Tribal Court may deem the initial motion or motion raising new issues unopposed and may issue an order without hearing. The Court, in its discretion, may refuse to permit oral argument by the party not filing the required documents, may consider the matter unopposed, may allow reasonable attorney's fees, or may take other appropriate action.
 - C. Settlement Efforts. No motion, except motion for temporary relief, will be heard unless the parties or their representatives have conferred either in person, or by telephone, or in writing in an attempt to resolve their differences prior to the hearing. The moving party shall initiate such conference. The moving party shall certify to the Tribal Court, before the time of the hearing, compliance with this rule or any reasons for not complying, including lack of availability or cooperation of opposing party or counsel. Whenever any pending motion is settled, the moving party shall promptly advise the Tribal Court.
 - D. Motion with Request for Oral Testimony. Motions, except for contempt proceedings, shall be submitted on affidavits, exhibits, documents subpoenaed to the hearing, memoranda, and arguments of counsel unless otherwise ordered by the Tribal Court for good cause shown. If demand is made for the taking of oral testimony, and if the matter cannot be heard adequately in the scheduled time, the hearing shall be utilized as a prehearing conference. Requests for hearing time in excess of one-half hour shall be submitted by written motion specifically setting forth the necessity and reason that evidence cannot be submitted by affidavit. The motion shall include names of witnesses, nature and length of testimony, including cross-examination, and types of exhibits, if any. The Tribal Court may issue an order limiting the number of witnesses each party may call, the scope of their testimony, and the total time for each party to present evidence. Such an order shall be made only after each party or her/his representative has had an opportunity to suggest appropriate limits. Any motion relating to custody or visitation shall additionally state whether either party desires the Tribal Court to interview minor children. No child under the age of fourteen years will be allowed to testify without prior written notice to the other party and Tribal Court approval.
4. Ex Parte Relief.
- A. Motion. The Tribal Court may grant ex parte relief only if requested by a motion with supporting affidavit, properly executed.
 - B. Order to Show Cause. An order to show cause shall not be used to grant ex parte relief except in those cases where a finding of contempt or the supporting affidavit makes an affirmative showing of:
 - i. A need to require the party to appear in person at the hearing; or

- ii. The need for interim support is warranted; or
 - iii. The production of limited financial information deemed necessary by the Tribal Court; or
 - iv. Such other limited relief and appropriate restraining orders, as addressed individually in the separate supportive affidavit for ex parte relief.
- C. Filing. All such orders and supporting documents must be filed with the order appropriately signed out for personal service. A conformed file copy of such order shall be retained by the Clerk of Tribal Courts in the file.
- D. Interim Support Order. To insure support for an unemployed party or a party with children pending a full temporary hearing, an initial order to show cause may, if the situation warrants, contain the following:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pending the aforesaid scheduled hearing, you, shall pay to the (petitioner) (respondent) commencing forthwith percent of your net earnings after the usual deductions for FICA, withholding taxes and group insurance, such payments to be made within 24 hours of your receipt of such earnings for each pay period. These payments are to ensure that provision is made by you for the support of your (wife) (husband) (and) (children) pending the aforesaid hearing.

The percentage to be used will be in accordance with the child support guidelines of this Ordinance and such other factors related to maintenance as the Tribal Court deems appropriate. There must be a showing in the Application for Temporary Relief of separate affidavit of the necessity for the interim order for support.

- E. Procedure. Orders to show cause shall be obtained in the same manner specified for ex parte relief. Such orders may require production of limited financial information deemed necessary by the Tribal Court. An order to show cause shall be issued only where the motion seeks a finding of contempt or the supporting affidavits makes an affirmative showing of:
- i. A need to require the party to appear in person at the hearing; or
 - ii. The need for interim support is warranted; or
 - iii. The production of limited financial information deemed necessary by the Tribal Court; or
 - iv. Such other limited relief and appropriate restraining orders, as addressed individually in the separate supportive affidavit for ex parte relief.
- F. Orders and decrees requiring child support or maintenance. All orders and judgments and decrees which include awards of child support and/or maintenance, unless otherwise directed by the Tribal Court, shall include the following provisions:

- i. Payment of support or maintenance, or both, is to be as ordered herein, and the giving of gifts or making purchases of food, clothing, and the like will not fulfill the obligation.
 - ii. Payment of support must be made as it becomes due, and failure to secure, or denial of rights of, visitation is not an excuse for nonpayment, but the aggrieved party must seek relief through proper motion filed with the Tribal Court.
 - iii. The payment of support or maintenance, or both, takes priority over payment of debts and other obligations.
 - iv. A party who remarries after dissolution and accepts additional obligations of support does so with full knowledge of his or her prior obligations under this proceeding.
 - v. Child support and maintenance are based on annual income, and it is the responsibility of a person with seasonal employment to budget income so that payments are made regularly throughout the year as ordered.
- d. Scheduling of Cases.
1. Scope. The purpose of this rule is to provide a uniform system for scheduling matters for disposition and trial in proceedings in Tribal Court for all domestic relations decisions.
 2. The Parties' Informational Statements. Within 30 days after filing an action or within 30 days after a temporary hearing, whichever is later, each party shall submit, on a form to be available from the Tribal Court (Appendix of Forms to this Ordinance), the information needed by the Tribal Court to manage and schedule the case. The information provided shall include:
 - i. Whether minor children are involved, and if so:
 01. Whether custody is in dispute; and
 02. Whether the case involves any issues seriously affecting the welfare of the children;
 - ii. Whether the case involves complex evaluation issues, and/or marital and non-marital property issues;
 - iii. Whether the case needs to be expedited, and if, so, the specific supporting facts;
 - iv. Whether the case is complex, and if so, the specific supporting facts;
 - v. Specific facts about the case which will affect readiness for trial; and
 - vi. A proposal for establishing any of the deadlines or dates to be included in a scheduling order pursuant to this rule.

3. Scheduling Order.

i. When Issued. Within 45 days after filing an action or 45 days after a temporary hearing, whichever is later, the Tribal Court shall enter its scheduling order. The Tribal Court may issue the order after either a telephone or in-court conference, or without a conference or hearing if none is needed.

ii. Contents of Order. The scheduling order may establish any of the following:

01. Deadlines of specific dates for the completion of discovery and other pretrial preparation;
02. Deadlines or specific dates for serving, filing, or hearing motions;
03. Deadlines or specific dates for completion and review of custody/visitation mediation and evaluation or property mediation and evaluation;
04. A deadline or specific date for the prehearing conference;
05. A deadline or specific date for the trial or final hearing.

4. Amendment. A scheduling order pursuant to this rule may be amended at a prehearing conference or upon motion for good cause shown, or upon approval by authorized Tribal Court personnel if there is agreement of all parties.

e. Prehearing Conferences.

1. Prehearing Statement. Each party shall complete a prehearing conference statement substantially in the form set forth at the Appendix of Forms to this Ordinance which shall be served upon all parties and mailed to or filed with the Tribal Court at least 10 days prior to the date of the prehearing conference.

2. Prehearing Conference Attendance.

i. Parties and counsel. Unless excused by the Tribal Court for good cause, the parties and lawyers who will try the proceedings shall attend the prehearing conference, prepared to negotiate a final settlement. If a stipulation is reduced to writing prior to the prehearing conference, the case may be heard as a default at the time scheduled for the conference. In that event, only the party obtaining the decree need appear.

ii. Failure to Appear—Sanctions. If a party fails to appear at a prehearing conference, the Tribal Court may dispose of the proceedings without further notice to that party.

iii. Failure to Comply—Sanctions. Failure to comply with the rules relating to prehearing conferences may result in the case being stricken from the contested calendar, granting of partial relief to the appearing party, striking of the non-appearing party's pleadings and the hearing of the matter as a default, award of attorney fees and costs, and such other relief as the Tribal Court finds appropriate, without further notice to the defaulting party.

3. Prehearing Conference Order. If the parties are unable to resolve the case, in whole or in part, at the prehearing conference, the Tribal Court shall issue an order which schedules any remaining discovery and any contemplated motions, identifies the contested issues for trial, and provides for the exchange of witness lists and exhibits to be offered at trial.

f. Default.

1. Scheduling of Final Hearing. To place a matter on the default calendar for final hearing, the moving party shall comply with the following, as applicable:
 - i. Without Stipulation—No Appearance. In all default proceedings where a stipulation has not been filed, an affidavit of default and of non-military status of the defaulting party or a waiver by that party of any rights under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, shall be filed with the Tribal Court.
 - ii. Without Stipulation—Appearance. Where the defaulting party has appeared by a pleading other than a response, answer, or personally without a pleading, and has not affirmatively waived notice of the other party's right to a default hearing, the moving party shall notify the defaulting party in writing at least ten (10) days before the final hearing of the intent to proceed to Judgment. The notice shall state:

You are hereby notified that an application has been made for a final hearing to be held not sooner than three (3) days from the date of this notice. You are further notified that the Tribal Court will be requested to grant the relief requested in the petition at the hearing.

The default hearing will not be held until the notice has been mailed to the defaulting party at the last known address and an affidavit of service by mail has been filed.

- iii. Default With Stipulation. Whenever a stipulation settling all issues has been executed by the parties subsequent to the pre-hearing conference, the stipulation shall be filed with an affidavit of non-military status of the defaulting party or a waiver of that party's rights under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, if not included in the stipulation. In a stipulation where a party appears pro se, the following waiver shall be executed by that party:

I know I have the right to be represented by a lawyer of my choice. I hereby expressly waive that right and I freely and voluntarily sign the foregoing stipulation.

2. Preparation of Decree. In a scheduled default matter, proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, order for judgment and judgment and decree shall be submitted to the Tribal Court in advance of, or at, the final hearing.
- g. Final Hearings.
1. Failure to Appear—Sanctions. Failure to appear at the scheduled final hearing may result in the case being stricken from the contested calendar, granting of partial relief to the appearing party, striking of the non-appearing party's pleadings and the hearing of the matter as a default, an award of the attorney's fees and costs, and such other relief as the Tribal Court finds appropriate, without further notice to the defaulting party.
 2. Stipulations Entered In Open Tribal Court—Preparation of Findings. Where a stipulation has been entered orally upon the record, the lawyer directed to prepare the decree shall submit it to the Tribal Court with a copy to each party. Unless a written, fully executed stipulation is filed or unless the decree contains the written approval of the lawyer for each party, a transcript of the oral stipulation shall be filed by the lawyer directed to prepare the decree. Responsibility for the cost of the transcript shall be determined by the Tribal Court. Entry of the decree shall be deferred for 14 days to allow for objections unless the decree contains the written approval of the lawyer for each party.
- h. Final Decree—Notices and Service.
1. Awards of Child Support and/or Maintenance. All judgments and decrees which include awards of child support and/or maintenance, unless otherwise directed by the Tribal Court, shall include notification to both parties that:
 - i. Payment of support or maintenance, or both, is to be as ordered herein, and the giving of gifts or making purchases of food, clothing, and the like will not fulfill the obligation.
 - ii. Payment of support must be made as it becomes due, and failure to secure, or denial of rights of, visitation is not an excuse for nonpayment, but the aggrieved party must seek relief through proper motion filed with the Tribal Court.
 - iii. The payment of support or maintenance, or both, takes priority over payment of debts and other obligations. An aggrieved obligee of child support or maintenance payments may seek relief through proper motion filed with the Tribal Court.
 - iv. A party who remarries after dissolution and accepts additional obligations of support does so with full knowledge of her or his prior obligations under this proceeding.
 - v. Child support and maintenance are based on annual income, and it is the responsibility of a person with seasonal employment to budget income so that the payments are made regularly throughout the year as ordered.

2. Public Assistance. When a party is receiving or has applied for public assistance, the party obtaining the judgment and decree shall serve a copy on the agency responsible for child support enforcement, and the decree shall direct that all payments of child support and spousal maintenance shall be made to the agency providing the assistance for as long as the custodial parent is receiving assistance.
 3. Child Support Enforcement. When a private party has applied for or is using the services of the local child support enforcement agency, a copy of the decree shall be served by mail upon the agency involved by the party submitting the decree for the Court's execution.
 4. Supervised Custody or Visitation.
 - A. A copy of any judgment and decree directing ongoing supervision of custody or visitation shall be provided to the appropriate agency by the party obtaining the decree.
